Martinis

Martini is one of the most famous cocktails in the world. Originally made with gin and vermouth and garnished with green olives or lemon twist. However, over years, Martini dry cocktail has changed a lot. The early decades of 20th century saw the gradual emergence of vodka in the USA and because gin was quite often described as being flavoured vodka, so vodka inevitably found the way into the ever drier Martini.

*James Bond and his vodka martini made this drink famous.
His preference of course was "shaken not stirred".*

Dry, wet or perfect?

A "dry Martini", means you would like less vermouth

A typical dry Martini will have a drizzle of dry vermouth while an "extra dry" only a drop or two of dry vermouth

A "wet" Martini is the exact the opposite, more dry vermouth

A "perfect" Martini, on the other hand, will be made with equal parts dry and sweet vermouth with your vodka or gin

Garnish

Green olives, lemon twist, lime twist, grapefruit or cucumber

Dirty Martini? Ask for a little splash of olive brine
